MEMORANDUM TO: Assistant Commandant
Counter Intelligence Corps School

SUBJECT : Information relative to the Central Intelligence Agency

REFERENCE : Memorandum, Asst. Comdt., CIC School, 11 October 1949, subj: Reserve CIC
Detachments, attached

In reply to reference, the United States Army Strategic Intelligence School has been furnished all of the information about the Central Intelligence Agency which can be made available for official instruction purposes outside of the Agency. There is no objection to this information being also used for other official Army instruction purposes within the classification under which it was furnished.

1. Reference material requested on CIA for use of Army Areas in active duty training of Reserve CIC detachments. The training program is designed to bring the reserve detachment to a point of unit operational efficiency that will insure its readiness for immediate commitment in any theater. Each member of every detachment accepted for the training must have been cleared for CIC duty under MOS's authorized in T/O&E 20-500, 15 Sep 48.

2. One section of the program deals with strategic counter intelligence, and under this section it is desired to include material on the organization and functions of ID, ONI, FBI, State Department Intelligence Agencies, and CIA. Any materials available on the mission, background, major functions, organization, and special relationships of these agencies can be utilized in the training program. Any classification up to and inclusive of "SECRET" can be properly safeguarded.

3. Request text materials and/or other material from CIA that can be used in connection with the above mentioned program.
